if just the first paragraph is used

Shall We Dance? Encore! takes its audience on a whirlwind journey through dancehalls and ballrooms of days gone by. Meet a fantastic array of dancehall characters playing out their dreams and fears; gorgeous vintage costumes; original dancehall tunes weaved into a specially-composed soundscape; and of course those authentic dance steps, worked into a delightful melee of physical storytelling. Gorgeous gowns, great music and heart-warming stories of love and loss.

Watch and wonder as each new dance craze unfolds – from the frenetic flappers of the Charleston era through the glamorous Tango dancers from the heyday of Ballroom Dance, to the post-war fling that was Swing and finally the end-of-an-era Rock n Roll Stroll.

Based on the reminiscences of older people and their memories of dancehalls and (often long-lost) dance partners, Shall We Dance? Encore! packs a big punch: an hour-long almost-wordless show, performed with great gusto by a company of six actor-dancers.
